

Young Gamechangers Fund

Eligibility Criteria

Thank you for your interest in applying to our first-ever funding round! The Young Gamechangers Fund is looking for young activists, campaigners, disrupters, co-operators, and social entrepreneurs to lead social action across the UK. There are two types of funding available in this round:

- Funding for individuals
- Funding for groups or organisations with an annual income of less than ±250,000

One-year grants of up to ±20,000 are available for both individuals and groups or organisations, along with one year of support from our delivery partners, Global Fund for Children and Restless Development.

The Young Gamechangers Fund wants to prioritise support for young activists who are committed to creating communities that are prosperous, safe, diverse, equitable, inclusive, healthy, and sustainable. In particular, the fund is seeking to support groups and communities that prioritise youth activism and shared power.

The total amount of funding available in this round is up to  $\pm 600,000$ . We are planning more funding rounds in 2024 and 2025, so if you aren't quite ready to apply yet, sign up to find out about future rounds here.

To learn more about the Young Gamechangers Fund, our aims and our funders, please check out our website here.

There are two types of funding available in this round – project funding and flexible, core funding. If you apply for project funding, you have to use the funding for a specific project or agreed set of activities. If you apply for flexible, core funding, you can use this for project costs and general ongoing costs like salaries, overheads (bills, rent, insurance etc) or for other activities that support your goals. You can learn more about these types of funding in our Frequently Asked Ouestions.

Who are we looking to fund in this round?

The Young Gamechangers Fund welcomes applications from all eligible individuals OR groups and organisations.

The Young Gamechangers Fund is not able to support:

- One-off activities, short-term projects, fundraisers, events, travel or scholarships that do not contribute to bigger community change
- Local offices, affiliates, or projects of large NGOs, governments, or intergovernmental organisations
- Activities that support or oppose candidates for public office or party politics
- Activities or work that tries to convert participants to a particular religion or requires participants to join or convert to a religion to take part
- Organisations that, in policy or in practice, discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, caste, religion, gender identity, disability, socio-economic status, or sexual orientation
- Groups that conduct or support violent activities or violate criminal law
- For more information on what the fund cannot support, please read our Frequently Asked Ouestions

What do we mean by youth-led?

By youth-led, we mean projects or actions that are led by an individual young person aged 10 - 25OR where the organisation or group involves children and young people aged 10 - 25 in leadership and decision-making of the project you are seeking funding for. Where young gamechangers are supported by or hosted by an adult-led organisation or group, your application must show how your project, activity or activism is driven by young people within the organisation or group.

How do I apply?

The application is a 2-stage process. The first part is an eligibility quiz to confirm you are able to apply. If you are eligible, you will then be invited to complete the application form. You can click here to get started.
